

Motorists (Tough Age, Feel Alright) to release “From The Wreckage” EP

by Adam White 7 years ago

Toronto's Motorists <<https://motorists.bandcamp.com/>> are gearing up to release a 6-song EP titled From the Wreckage. The power-pop group features a trio of Calgary transplants, with Feel Alright <<http://www.facebook.com/feelalrighttt/>> 's Craig Fahner and Matt Learoyd up front and Jesse Locke (Tough Age, Chandra <<https://www.telephoneexplosion.com/products/chandra-transportation-eps>> , Simply Saucer) behind the kit. A limited run of cassettes arrives this weekend on Planet of the Tapes <<https://planet-tapes.bandcamp.com/>> , coinciding with a release show <<http://www.facebook.com/events/882754575505835/>> Saturday night in the basement of Toronto comic shop The Beguiling with support from No Frills <<https://nofrills.life/>> and Safe.

Locke jested on Twitter that they're going for a "punk Sloan" sound on the outing. As the songs here pair tight jangle-punk with Fahner's world-weary vocals, that's not a bad description. You can find a video for the track "Go Back" on YouTube now or snag the digitals at Bandcamp <<https://motorists.bandcamp.com/>> .

Motorists - Go Back

pizzabeats

This story is part of a reporting partnership between Punknews.org and Some Party

<<https://www.someparty.ca/>>

utm_source=punknews&utm_medium=article&utm_campaign=punknews&utm_content=

, a weekly newsletter covering independent Canadian rock music. Subscribe at someparty.ca <<https://www.someparty.ca/>>

utm_source=punknews&utm_medium=article&utm_campaign=punknews&utm_content=

.